Industry Opinions: Safety Inspection

- “Making Safety Inspections a Non-negotiable Item” with Mike Anderson, CollisionAdvice.com president
 - “Most, if not all, OEMs have safety inspections that need to be performed when a vehicle is in a collision whether the airbags deploy or not. The upcoming session will be Mike’s impassioned plea to the claims and repair industries to place consumer safety at the forefront, by performing critical steps to ensure safety.”
 - Society of Collision Repair Specialists IDEAS Collide Showcase (November 4)

Overview of Vehicle Inspection Programs

- Fifteen states currently require a periodic (annual or biennial) vehicle safety inspection
- An additional sixteen states require emissions testing
- Multiple studies (Carnegie Mellon, Pennsylvania, Texas) have shown that vehicle safety inspection programs significantly decrease traffic accidents and injuries
- Pennsylvania Senate Bill 965
 - Will inspection requirements apply to AVs?

Carnegie Mellon Vehicle Safety Inspection Study (2020)

- “Reducing Roadway Fatalities: Implementing a Proven Strategy with Safety Inspection & Maintenance Programs”
 - On average, across all states, we find that states with I/M programs have 5.5% fewer fatalities
 - This translates to ~1400 fewer fatalities across the U.S. in 2018

Types of Inspections

- Post repair Inspection
- Periodic Vehicle safety inspection
- Periodic Emissions inspection
- VIN Inspection
- Registration/or Transfer Inspection
- Vehicle Maintenance “Courtesy Inspection”

Considerations for Periodic Vehicle Safety Inspections

- Improperly repaired, unrepaired or deteriorating vehicle conditions of vehicles on the road creates a public safety concern.
- Current inspection programs need updates to address and/or expand Safety and ADAS related systems for verification of functionality.
- Is there a need to perform and/or support mandated Periodic Vehicle Safety Inspections?
- Should there be Federal or State Legislation regulating Periodic Vehicle Safety Inspection standards?

Overview of Vehicle Inspection Programs

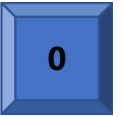

Vehicle inspection laws by state:

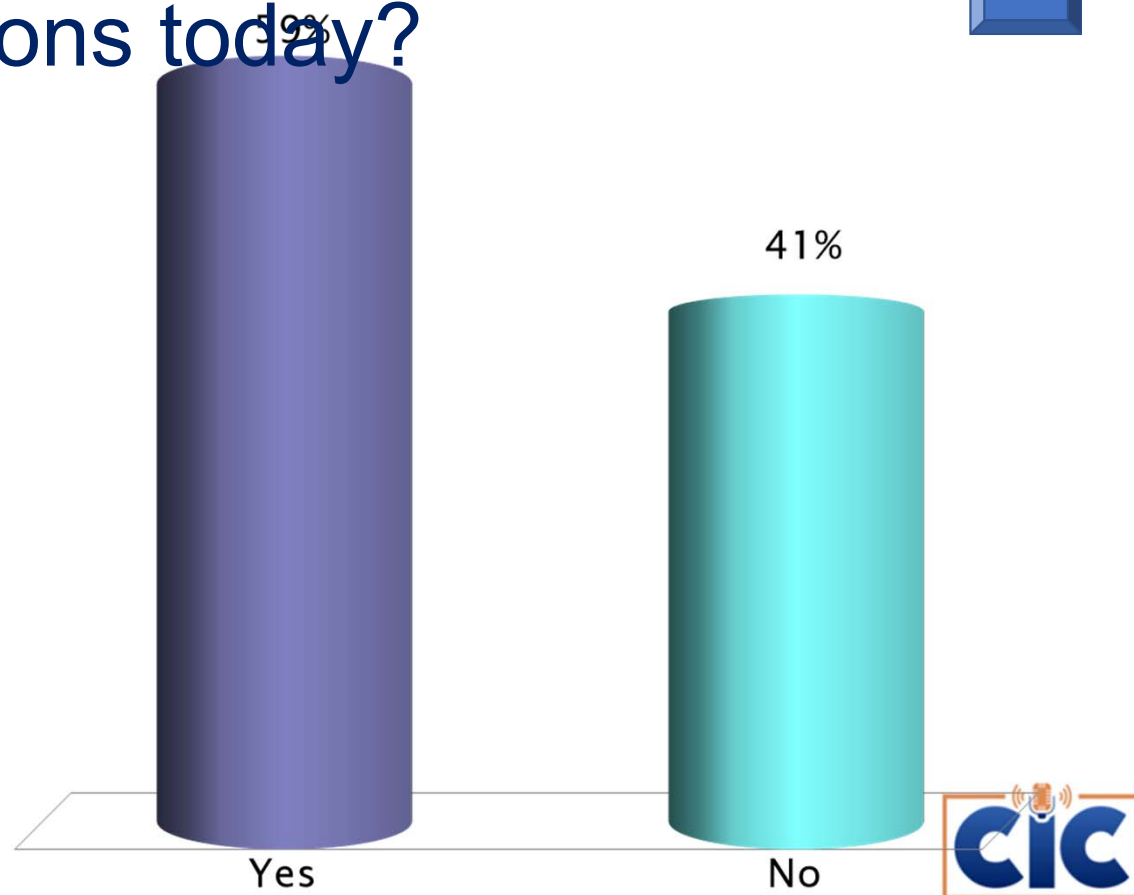

-  Periodic safety inspection required
 -  Safety inspection required upon sale or transfer
 -  Safety inspection required when registering a vehicle from another jurisdiction
 -  Emissions testing required in some areas
 -  Emissions testing required in all areas
 -  No inspection required
- Striped: Both safety and emissions testing required
